Mood Lounge 1318 9th Street, NW-Request for Show-Cause Hearing related to October 30, 2011 Assault in Mood Lounge.

This ANC has made a request for a show-cause hearing based on violations of the Voluntary Agreement (VA) and an assault that happened at Mood Lounge in October of 2011. The VA requires Mood Lounge to keep a log of resident complaints and provide on request. They have not been able to produce the required log which is a violation of the VA. As a result of the press from the stabbing at the end of this past year and number of other issues, a resident sent an e-mail complimenting Jack Evans' office on their role in holding Mood Lounge accountable and sharing that they were assaulted in Mood Lounge. The individual who allegedly committed the assault was the hired entertainment and according to Ms. Kimbel, they have recently turned themselves in.

Mood Lounge is a CT with an entertainment license. Liquor licensing runs on a three year cycle which will end September 20, 2012. Therefore the next opportunity to protest Mood Lounge will be end of this year. They cannot ask for an amendment to their license until they have been in business for four years.

Upon motion by Benardo, seconded by Raymond, and after further discussion, it was,

RESOLVED, the ANC write a letter to ABRA advising them on the unreported incident on October 30, 2011 and recommend the establishment be cited for multiple violations of the VA and request that a show cause hearing be held.

Parc Deux Restaurant 1601 14th Street, NW-Voluntary Agreement

Reed noted that the prior administration failed to protest the license within the necessary timeframe, taking responsibility for missing the deadline. Counsel on behalf of Parc Restaurant has been working with the ANC on mutually agreeable VA. Steven O'Brien noted that Melissa McCloud, General Counsel for Starr Restaurants and Michael Palermo were in also attendance and pointed out the points of divergence on the VA. In response to the concerns, they have made several changes. During the week, the restaurant is willing to move interior hours back to 1am on Sundays through Thursdays and 1:45am on Fridays and Saturdays. The sidewalk café will close 11:30pm (Sunday-Thursday) and 12:30am (Friday and Saturday). The restaurant has also reduced the interior seating from 246 to 194 and the sidewalk café seating from 144 to 102.

Mr. O'Brien indicated that there would be planters marking the sidewalk café and offered the opportunity for community members to view the floor plan. Reed expressed concerns on behalf of his SMD regarding noise emanating from the sidewalk café and requested that Parc reconsider the hours of the original VA for the sidewalk cafe pending a trial period, which if successful, hours could be extended. Goekjian requested a few weeks and a private session to vet out terms that are agreeable. O'Brien pointed out that he initiated contact in November with the ANC and a couple more weeks are less than ideal. They are trying to reach accommodation, and O'Brien asked that the commission make a decision this evening.

Raymond acknowledged the efforts of O'Brien and his clients to accommodate this ANC and make a VA that is mutually agreeable and acknowledged the complex position Reed and other commissioners are given the situation and their efforts to best serve their communities and their interests. The commission discussed the matter at length. Barron suggested the possibility that the restaurant shave half hour off of the 70% of revenue is from food, more than half of the remaining 30% is wine. The business model requires a certain number of operational hours. O'Brien indicated that his client is willing to move the hours by half hour. Several community members who live nearly adjacent to the proposed establishment shared their belief that the thirty minute compromise is reasonable and welcome. Reed indicated he could accept the compromise with the understanding that negotiations would be reopened if there were complaints.

Upon motion by Reed, seconded by Goekjian, and after further discussion, it was,
