Date: July 7, 2010
Time: 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

To vote, persons must either appear on the official list of registered voters provided by the District of Columbia Board of Elections and Ethics list of voters or present a valid voter's registration card.

THIS ELECTION IS IMPORTANT TO YOU, and your ANC urges you to vote. Advisory Neighborhood Commissions are established under the District of Columbia Home Rule Charter and are composed of non-paid, non-partisan citizens to represent the residents within the commission's area. Your ANC advises all agencies and instrumentalities of the District government on matters involving public health and safety, crime, traffic, parking, street improvements and closings, parks and events, zoning, economic development, taxes, City budget—in fact, on any matter of City government that can affect you in your relationship with local government. Although the delegate will be non-voting, he or she will serve until a voting commissioner is elected at the General Elections this fall. You will be voting for one of your neighbors who will be representing you on matters that can make a difference to you. Please take the time to attend and vote.

Sincerely yours,

Charles D. Reed

Appendix A:

Appendix B. Excerpt of ANC 2F bylaws, Article IV, Section 5:

(a) If a vacancy occurs on the Commission, by reason of death, incapacity, move out of the SMD or resignation of a commissioner and either (i) the vacancy occurs within six months of a general election during which the District of Columbia statute (D.C. Code 1-309.06) provides for the election of an interim commissioner to complete the term of such vacancy, or (ii) the vacancy occurs before such six months but no interim commissioner candidate is qualified to be elected in accordance with D.C. Code 1-309.06 or no candidate is elected thereunder; then, the Commission may, but is not required to, provide for a non-voting representative (“Delegate” from the SMD in which the vacancy has occurred, so as to better assure that the interests of residents in that SMD are represented. For the purposes of this Section, the Commission may declare a temporary vacancy when it reasonably appears to the Commission that a commissioner is incapacitated or will be absent and temporarily unable to perform his or her duties.

(b) Where a vacancy exists, the Commission may hold an election for Delegate as follows. The Commission shall announce, in the manner provided by law for the announcements of ANC meetings, the call of the election to be held at a monthly meeting on a date no sooner than 2 weeks from the date of such announcement. Persons wishing to stand for election shall present petitions to the Commission signed by at least 15 registered voters in the relevant SMD at least 2 weeks from the election date. The Commission shall conduct the election at a duly called public meeting. Only persons qualified to vote in the District of Columbia shall be entitled to vote in the election. Write-in votes shall not be allowed. If only one candidate qualifies, the Commission shall appoint such person to be the Delegate. If no candidate qualifies, the Commission may, but is not required to, appoint a candidate who resides in the SMD at issue.

(c) Where the Commission has declared a temporary vacancy, the Commission may appoint a temporary Delegate for the duration of the incapacity or absence or hold an election in accordance with subsection (b), above.

(d) Only persons having the same qualifications as commissioners under D.C. law and these By-laws shall be entitled to be Delegates. They shall serve until duly elected or appointed commissioners fill the vacancies.

(e) Any references in these By-laws to “members of the Commission” or “elected representative of the Commission” shall not include Delegates, except that Delegates shall have full rights to the floor, including making and seconding motions, at all Commission meetings, but they may not vote on motions, nor shall their presence be counted for purposes of determining a quorum.
